During my tenure with the Office of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge, Calexico, California I have personally arrested at least 70 persons for violations of the Controlled Substance Act. PURPOSE OF THIS AFFIDAVIT

5. This affidavit is made in support of an application for a warrant to search the following location: 699 S. Fifth Street in Brawley, California, 92227 ("TARGET RESIDENCE"). The TARGET RESIDENCE is described in more detail in Attachment A, attached hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.

6. I make this affidavit based on personal knowledge derived from my participation in this investigation. Because this affidavit is offered for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause for the issuance of this search warrant, it does not contain all the information that the government possesses relative to this investigation.

III

SCHEDULE OF EVIDENCE TO BE SEIZED

7. A list of specific items to be seized from the TARGET RESIDENCE is attached hereto, and incorporated herein, as Attachment B. Based on my training and experience, as detailed above, and on information obtained in the course of this investigation, as detailed below, I believe there is probable cause to believe that the items listed in Attachment B will be found at the TARGET RESIDENCE described in Attachment A.

IV

PROBABLE CAUSE TO SEARCH THE TARGET RESIDENCE

8. On March 14, 2008, at approximately 0100 hours a concerned citizen contacted Special Agent (SA) Torregrosa and advised him that a 1990 Ford Econoline Van with unknown plates was going to cross the Calexico East Port of entry carrying about 800 kilograms of marijuana shortly after the Port opens at 0300 hours.

9. On March 14, 2008, at approximately 0400 hours, Customs and Border Protection Officers (CBPO) spotted the 1990 Chevrolet Van, bearing California plate 2TAS364, containing several packages located in the back of the van. The registered owner of the 1990 Chevrolet Van is Pedro Sandoval Aguello, Calle 6 KM, Mexicali, Baja California, Mexico. The driver was identified as Francisco Javier GALLEGOS and was taken to the vehicle secondary office for further proceedings. CBPO C. Martinez probed one of the packages and obtained a green leafy substance, which field-tested positive for marihuana. The van was completely packed with packages consistent with the earlier report that 800 kilograms of marihuana were going to be smuggled into the United States.

10. SA Torregrosa who was on scene was notified and contacted GALLEGOS. As SA Torregrosa was identifying himself to GALLEGOS, GALLEGOS' cell phone group talk radio rang. SA Torregrosa answered the radio in Spanish and stated "Que Onda", which means what's up, an unidentified male subject answered in Spanish thinking he was talking to ~~DOE~~ ^{Gallegos} and asked, "Ya crusastes la garita," meaning if I had already crossed the port of entry, to which I replied "Simon", meaning yes. The subject replied back by saying "Okay llevatela a la Wal-Mart de El Centro, y algun te va ha pedir las llaves, daselas y esperate en la Wal-Mart," meaning Okay take it to Wal-Mart in El Centro, and someone will ask you for the keys, give them the keys and wait at Wal-Mart.

11. On March 14, 2008, at approximately 0500, hours a cold convoy operation (surveillance operation) was conducted at the Calexico East Port of Entry by the ICE, Office of Investigations, and Imperial County Narcotic Task Force (ICNTF). SA Gates drove the van to Wal-Mart in El Centro, California and surveyed by Special Agents from Office of the Assistant special Agent in Charge, Calexico, California. SA Gates and the van were surveyed from the Calexico East Port of Entry to Wal-Mart in El Centro, California. Once the drug-laden van arrived at the Wal-Mart in El Centro, California, at approximately 0500 hours, SA Gates exited the van and waited for a call, at approximately 0700 hours GALLEGOS' cell phone group talk rang, and a subject identified as "PULGA" by the cell phone's caller I.D. PULGA stated to drive the van to Jack-In-The-Box located in Brawley, California near the 111 Highway. SA Gates drove the van to the Jack-In-The-Box in Brawley, California. ICE and ICNTF agents surveyed SA Gates and the van from El Centro, Wal-Mart to the Jack-In-The-Box in Brawley. Upon arrival to the Jack-In-The-Box, approximately 0745 hours, SA Gates dropped the van and left the keys underneath the driver's side mat and exited the van. At 0755 hours, a Hispanic male wearing blue shorts, blue shirt, 5' 9", 200 pounds entered the van and drove away. ICE and ICNTF agents surveilled the subject and the van from Jack-In-The-Box to 1346 H Street in Brawley, California. The van was driven through an alley and parked in the back yard of 1346 H Street, the driver exited the van and went inside the house, no packages were off-loaded.

12. On March 14, 2008 at approximately 1200 hours, the same driver entered the van and left the residence at 1346 H Street in Brawley, California. The subject drove the van to 699 S. Fifth Street in Brawley, California. The driver seemed to be following a Hispanic female driving a 2006 Nissan Altima bearing California plate number 5TKT659. The registered owner of the 2006 Nissan Altima is Roberto Juarez, 1528 River Drive, Brawley, California 92227. The van went behind the residence at 699 S. Fifth Street in Brawley through an alley and backed into the residence. The Nissan Altima drove into the driveway of the residence.

13. Utility record checks show that the person who is currently responsible for paying the utilities for the address of 699 S. 5th Street, Brawley, California 92227 is Maria Leon, Date of Birth: 10/02/67.

VI

14. Based on the facts contained in this affidavit and my experience and training, I submit that there is probable cause to believe that the TARGET RESIDENCE, as more particularly described in Attachment A, contains evidence of violations of Title 21, United States Code, Section 952 and 960 Importation and Transportation of a Controlled Substance. I believe that individuals involved in trafficking of controlled substance, traffickers move the controlled substance from stash house to stash house in order to avoid detection by law enforcement. Based on the facts of this affidavit, I believe the individuals involved are moving the marijuana from location to location in order to avoid detection by law enforcement.

15. Further, I believe the above-described property/items to be seized will be found when this warrant is served and based on the above-listed probable cause, I specifically request authority to seize the items described above and in Attachment B hereto, which is incorporated by reference herein.

a. It is customary for individuals involved in controlled substance trafficking to maintain controlled substances so they are readily available to show as samples to prospective purchasers, and to conceal such controlled substances within their residence or other storage facilities to avoid detection by authorities.

b. It is common for individuals involved in controlled substance dealing to maintain in their residence or separate storage facilities controlled substance paraphernalia for packaging, weighing, cutting, using, marketing, testing, distributing, storing, identifying, and transporting controlled substances.

c. Individuals involved in controlled substance trafficking maintain in their residences and separate storage facilities records and ledgers evidencing their trafficking activities in order to keep track of the ordering, purchasing, storage, distribution and transportation of controlled substances. At times, the controlled substances may be sold, but documentary records and ledgers remain to memorialize past transactions, the status of accounts receivable and accounts payable, and the names and telephone numbers of suppliers, customers and co-conspirators.

d. Individuals involved in controlled substance trafficking must rely on others to obtain the controlled substances and help them market the controlled substances, and evidence of the identities of these co-conspirators is often maintained in their residence or separate storage facilities.

e. Individuals involved in controlled substance trafficking obtain large sums of money and try to legitimize these profits. In order to do this, they attempt to secrete, transfer and conceal the money, by and among other ways, (1) placing assets in names other than their own to avoid detection while maintaining control, (2) laundering the money through what appears to be a legitimate business, (3) hiding the money in their homes, safes and safety deposit boxes, or (4) using the money to buy assets which are difficult for law enforcement to trace. Records for these transactions are often found in their residences or separate storage facilities maintained by the narcotics trafficker.

f. Individuals involved in controlled substance trafficking must maintain on hand large amounts of United States currency in order to maintain and finance their ongoing controlled substance business. In addition, other assets generated by their controlled substance business, or purchased with the cash earned, such as U.S. currency, precious metals and stones, jewelry, negotiable instruments and financial instruments, including stocks and bonds, are typically kept by controlled substance traffickers within their residences or separate storage facilities to avoid detection by authorities.

g. Individuals involved in controlled substances trafficking take or cause to be taken photographs of themselves, their associates, their property and their controlled substances, and usually maintain these photographs in their possession.

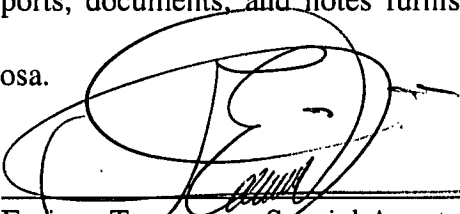

h. Individual involved in controlled substance trafficking will often possess in their residences, storage facilities and vehicles equipment to detect police activities and surveillance, including radio scanners and tape and wire transmitter detectors.

25. I, or any other duly authorized federal agent, will personally serve the warrant requested above, and will be assisted by other duly authorized federal investigators.

26. I have prepared this affidavit in close consultation with several federal agents with whom I work and Assistant U. S. Attorney John Weis in the Southern District of California.

27. Wherefore, your affiant respectfully requests a respectfully requests a warrant be issued authorizing I.C.E. Special agents to search the residence of 699 S. Fifth Street, Brawley, California 92227.

This affidavit is based on reports, documents, and notes furnished to I.C.E. to
I.C.E. Special Agent Enrique Torregrosa.
